Fact Sheet

Darrell Lomax is an innocent man on California's death row, put there for a crime he did not commit. He has been waiting over 14 years to clear his name and prove his innocence. The state level direct appeal has been sitting completely filed before the California Supreme Court for nearly two years and he has been waiting for over 14 years for his state level habeas counsel, which is cruel and unusual to say the least.

Facts that raise questions about Darrell's conviction and death sentence:

1. There is no physical evidence that Darrell either handled or fired the gun said to have been used in the robbery-murder for which he was convicted. Finger prints were lifted off the gun but did not match Darrell's prints nor was there any gun shot residue found on Darrell's person.
2. Both prosecution witnesses offered perjured testimony having received legal and financial assistance to falsely implicate Darrell as the guilty party. One witness (who received a 10 year deal) was identified as the suspect by the surviving clerk, the same clerk who cleared Darrell as the field test identification. The second witness was one of the 9 witnesses who also cleared Darrell in the field identification lineup. However, after receiving legal and financial assistance from the D.A.'s office he agreed to pick Darrell out of a lineup at the county jail.
3. Darrell was prejudiced by the failure of the prosecutor and the defense counsel to secure the surviving clerk as an exonerating witness at his trial. The defense also failed to call Darrell's alibi witnesses, one of which had know whereabouts since he had registered through the state parole and probation system.
4. Darrell was granted a pretrial dismissal by the 2nd Appellate Court as a result of both serious statutory and constitutional violations. The Superior Court ordered Darrell's release from custody which is mandated by the penal code 1384. The release never happened which means the trial court is still today in contempt of the higher court's order. This situation is a gross miscarriage of justice because Darrell would have had to have been released first before the prosecutor could re-file charges against him.
5. Darrell Lomax is not only innocent of these charges but he has clearly been illegally detained, charged, tried and sentenced to death row.

Darrell needs your support and / or contributions to help bring this injustice to light so that he can be released. Anything less than this would prolong this cruel and unusual punishment.

Thank you!
